

The Congressional Arts Caucus is a bipartisan organization for Members of Congress who support the arts. The Caucus is chaired by Congresswoman Louise Slaughter (D-NY) and Congressman Chris Shays (R-CT). As a member of the Congressional Arts Caucus, I have the opportunity to work with my colleagues in Congress on an issue that is important to us.

The goal of the Arts Caucus is to work together to further access to the arts through federal initiatives. There are currently 146 members of the Arts Caucus. We work with arts groups, artists, business leaders and other arts supporters to promote legislation important to the arts community.
